

Successful Learners

Successful learners take ownership for and are engaged in their learning. They are on their way to becoming self-reliant and personally responsible. This graphic reflects and supports the principles and strategies represented in the AAC key visual, Assessing Student Learning in the Classroom.